

It's Minifest time!

Minifest will be held in Tillsonburg this year on Friday, July 22 and Saturday, July 23.

The Waiting Room

by Johnny Bobesich

Synopsis

Sarah and Ryan are about to have their first child and Sarah's family is very thrilled, except for one thing.... No one in Sarah's family actually likes her husband Ryan. The Waiting Room is a farcical look counting down to the final moments of a birth where family dynamics, instead of the baby, end up taking center stage.

WARNING: May cause panic, light-headedness and anxiety attacks for expectant fathers.

Directed by Ann Parker

Assisted by Joan Veldman

That Summer

by David French.

Production dates are in November

It's Memorial Day, 1990, and Margaret Ryan has returned from Vermont to the Ontario cottage where she vacationed with her family thirty-two years earlier. For Margaret and her sister Daisy, it was a time of awakening, a time of discovery. As Margaret, the narrator, watches her younger self relive the beauty of that long-ago summer, the play moves inexorably back to the heartbreak of a headlong surrender to experience, and to what was won and lost in a single day.

If you'd be interested in directing this one, or if you just want more info, please call Cathy Siddall at 519-475-4947 or email: cathy@workshopsupply.com

Phrases you will never hear uttered by the following people:

BY THE PRODUCER:

- Of course there's enough money to go around.
- In fact, we have money left over.
- No thanks, I don't drink.

BY THE DIRECTOR:

- I think the scene changes are too fast.
- Of course I think we'll be ready in time for opening.
- No, we don't need to re-work that scene.
- No thanks, I don't drink.

BY THE STAGE MANAGER:

- It looks as though there'll be time for a third dress rehearsal.
- Take your time getting back from break.
- The headsets are working perfectly.
- No thanks, I don't drink.

BY THE ACTOR:

- Don't... let's not talk about me.
- I really think my big scene should be cut.
- I love my shoes.
- Let me stand down here with my back to the audience.
- No thanks, I don't drink.
